San Francisco's "Energy 92.7" sold.

Here's more evidence of just how far major market prices have fallen. Four years ago, Flying Bear Media paid Marathon Media $33.7 million for Alameda Class A "Energy 92.7" KNGY. Ed Stolz's Golden State Broadcasting will pay just $6.5 million.

Stolz may keep KNGY's niche dance format in-place since it's a lot easier to do with a bargain-basement purchase price. It's the second deal in two months for Stolz who last month struck a $15.25 million agreement to buy three Las Vegas stations from Beasley Broadcast Group. Brokers: Michael Bergner (for Stolz) and Media Venture Partners (for Flying Bear).
